

The Báb: The Gate to Bahá'u'lláh

“Báb” is an Arabic word which means “Gate”. The Báb was a Manifestation of God whose mission was to prepare the world for the coming of Bahá'u'lláh. Many gates lead to beautiful things. In the space below, draw a gate leading to something beautiful—a garden, a meadow, or a pond, for example.

The Báb referred to the greatness and glory of Bahá'u'lláh in this way: “For all that hath been exalted in the Bayán is but a ring upon My hand, and I Myself am, verily, but a ring upon the hand of Him Whom God shall make manifest—glorified be His mention!”

For all that hath been _____ in the Bayán is but a _____ upon My _____, and I Myself am, verily, but a _____ upon the hand of Him Whom _____ shall make _____—glorified be His mention!
