

The Báb Joyfully Sacrificed His Life

To sacrifice means to give up something lower for something higher.
For example, a seed planted in the ground sacrifices itself so that a tree may appear. Draw a seed growing into a tree.

The Báb addressed Bahá'u'lláh in these words: “O Thou Remnant of God! I have sacrificed Myself wholly for Thee; I have consented to be cursed for Thy sake; and have yearned for naught but martyrdom in the path of Thy love.”

O Thou Remnant of God! I have _____ Myself wholly for Thee; I have _____ to be _____ for Thy sake; and have yearned for naught but _____ in the path of Thy love.
