Justice

God loves justice. Justice means that we must respect the rights of every human being and make sure we do not take away from anyone what they deserve, which would lead to oppression and tyranny. The purpose of justice is the appearance of unity among humankind. We show justice when we share with others and treat them with fairness and equally.